4.48 Psychosis was first performed at the Royal Court Jerwood Theatre Upstairs, London, on 23 June 2000. The cast was as follows:

Daniel Evans
Jo McInnes
Madeline Potter

Directed by James Macdonald
Designed by Jeremy Herbert
Lighting by Nigel J Edwards
Sound by Paul Arditti
(A very long silence.)

– But you have friends.

(A long silence.)

You have a lot of friends.
What do you offer your friends to make them so supportive?

(A long silence.)

What do you offer your friends to make them so supportive?

(A long silence.)

What do you offer?

(Silence.)

a consolidated consciousness resides in a darkened banqueting hall near the ceiling of a mind whose floor shifts as ten thousand cockroaches when a shaft of light enters as all thoughts unite in an instant of accord body no longer expellent as the cockroaches comprise a truth which no one ever utters

I had a night in which everything was revealed to me.
How can I speak again?

the broken hermaphrodite who trusted hermself alone finds the room in reality teeming and begs never to wake from the nightmare and they were all there every last one of them and they knew my name

as I scuttled like a beetle along the backs of their chairs

Remember the light and believe the light

An instant of clarity before eternal night

don't let me forget
I am sad
I feel that the future is hopeless and that things cannot improve
I am bored and dissatisfied with everything
I am a complete failure as a person
I am guilty, I am being punished
I would like to kill myself
I used to be able to cry but now I am beyond tears
I have lost interest in other people
I can't make decisions
I can't eat
I can't sleep
I can't think
I cannot overcome my loneliness, my fear, my disgust
I am fat
I cannot write
I cannot love
My brother is dying, my lover is dying, I am killing them both
I am charging towards my death
I am terrified of medication
I cannot make love
I cannot fuck
I cannot be alone
I cannot be with others
My hips are too big
I dislike my genitals

At 4.48
when depression visits
I shall hang myself
to the sound of my lover's breathing

I do not want to die

I have become so depressed by the fact of my mortality that I have decided to commit suicide
I do not want to live

I am jealous of my sleeping lover and cover his induced unconsciousness

When he wakes he will envy my sleepless night of thought and speech unslurred by medication

I have resigned myself to death this year

Some will call this self-indulgence
(they are lucky not to know its truth)
Some will know the simple fact of pain

This is becoming my normality

It wasn't for long, I wasn't there long. But drinking bitter black coffee I catch that medicinal smell in a cloud of ancient tobacco and something touches me in that still place and a wound form two years ago opens like a cadaver and a long buried shame roars its foul decaying grief.

A room of expressionless faces string blankly at my pain, so devoid of meaning there must be evil intent.

Dr This and Dr That and Dr Whatsit who's just passing and thought he'd pop in to take the piss as well. Burning in a hot tunnel of dismay, my humiliation complete as I shake without reason and stumble over words and have nothing to say about my 'illness' which anyway amounts only to knowing that there's no point in anything because I'm going to die. And I am deadlocked by that smooth psychiatric voice of reason which tells me there is an objective reality in which my body and mind are one. But I am not here and never have been. Dr This writes it down and Dr That attempts a sympathetic murmur. Watching me, judging me, smelling the crippling failure oozing from my skin, my desperation clawing and all-consuming panic drenching me as I gape in horror at the world and wonder why everyone is smiling and looking at me with secret knowledge of my aching shame.

Shame shame shame.
Drown in your fucking shame.

Inscrutable doctors, sensible doctors, way-out doctors, doctors you'd think were fucking patients if you weren't shown proof otherwise, ask the same questions, put words in my mouth, offer chemical cures for congenital anguish and cover each other's arses until I want to scream for you, the only doctor who ever touched me voluntarily, who looked me in the eye, who laughed at my gallows humour spoken in the voice from the newly-dug grave, who took the piss when I shaved my head, who lied and said it was nice to see me. Who lied. And said it was nice to see me. I trusted you, I loved you, and it's not losing you that hurts me, but your bare-faced fucking falsehoods that masquerade as medical notes.

Your truth, your lies, not mine.

And while I was believing that you were different and that you maybe even felt the distress that sometimes flickered across your face and threatened to erupt, you were covering your arse too. Like every other stupid mortal cunt.

To my mind that's betrayal. And my mind is the subject of these bewildered fragments.

Nothing can extinguish my anger.

And nothing can restore my faith.

This is not a world in which I wish to live.
– Have you made any plans?
– Take an overdose, slash my wrists then hang myself.
– All those things together?
– It couldn't possibly be misconstrued as a cry for help.

(Silence.)
– It wouldn't work.
– Of course it would.
– It wouldn't work. You'd start to feel sleepy from the overdose and wouldn't have the energy to cut your wrists.

(Silence.)
– I'd be standing on a chair with a noose around my neck.

(Silence.)
– If you were alone do you think you might harm yourself?
– I'm scared I might.
– Could that be protective?

– Yes. It's fear that keeps me away from the train tracks. I just hope to God that death is the fucking end. I feel like I'm eighty years old. I'm tired of life and my mind wants to die.

– That's a metaphor, not reality.
– It's a simile.
– That's not reality.
– It's not a metaphor, it's a simile, but even if it were, the defining feature of a metaphor is that it's real.

(A long silence.)
– You are not eighty years old.

(Silence.)

Are you?
(A silence.)

Are you?

(A silence.)

Or are you?

(A long silence.)

– Do you despise all unhappy people or is it me specifically?

– I don't despise you. It's not your fault. You're ill.

– I don't think so.

– No?

– No. I'm depressed. Depression is anger. It's what you did, who was there and who you're blaming.

– And who are you blaming?

– Myself.

Body and soul can never be married

I need to become who I already am and will bellow forever at this incongruity which has committed me to hell

Insoluble hoping cannot uphold me

I will drown in dysphoria in the cold black pond of my self the pit of my immaterial mind

How can I return to form
now my formal thought has gone?

Not a life that I could countenance.

They will love me for that which destroys me
the sword in my dreams
the dust of my thoughts
the sickness that breeds in the folds of my mind
Every compliment takes a piece of my soul
An expressionist nag
Stalling between two fools
They know nothing –
    I have always walked free

Last in a long line of literary kleptomaniacs
    (a time honoured tradition)

Theft is the holy act
On a twisted path to expression

A glut of exclamation marks spells impending nervous breakdown
Just a word on a page and there is the drama

I write for the dead
    the unborn

After 4.48 I shall not speak again

I have reached the end of his dreary and repugnant tale of a sense interned in an alien carcass and lumpen by the malignant spirit of the moral majority

I have been dead for a long time

Back to my roots

    I sing without hope on the boundary

RSVP ASAP

Sometimes I turn around and catch the smell of you and I cannot go on I cannot fucking go on without expressing this terrible so fucking awful physical aching fucking longing I have for you. And I cannot believe that I can feel this for you and you feel nothing. Do you feel nothing?

(Silence.)
And I go out at six in the morning and start my search for you. If I've dreamt a message of a street or a pub or a station I go there. And I wait for you.

(Silence.)

You know, I really feel like I'm being manipulated.

(Silence.)

I've never in my life had a problem giving another person what they want. But no one's ever been able to do that for me. No one touches me, no one gets near me. But now you've touched me somewhere so fucking deep I can't believe and I can't be that for you. Because I can't find you.

(Silence.)

What does she look like?
And how will I know her when I see her?
She'll die, she'll die, she'll only fucking die.

(Silence.)

Do you think it's possible for a person to be born in the wrong body?

(Silence.)

Fuck you. Fuck you. Fuck you for rejecting me by never being there, fuck you for making me feel shit about myself, fuck you for bleeding the fucking love and life out of me, fuck my father for fucking up my life for good and fuck my mother for not leaving him, but most of all, fuck you God for making me love a person who does not exist,

FUCK YOU FUCK YOU FUCK YOU.

—Oh dear, what's happened to your arm?
—I cut it.
—That's a very immature, attention seeking thing to do. Did it give you relief?
—No.
—Did it relieve the tension?
No.

Did it give you relief?

(Silence.)

Did it give you relief?

No.

I don't understand why you did that.

Than ask.

Did it relieve the tension?

(A long silence.)

Can I look?

No.

I'd like to look, to see if it's infected.

No.

(Silence.)

I thought you might do this. Lots of people do. It relieves the tension.

Have you ever done it?

No. Far too fucking sane and sensible. I don't know where you read that, but it does not relieve the tension.

(Silence.)

Why don't you ask me why?
Why did I cut my arm?

Would you like to tell me?

Yes.

Then tell me.
– ASK.
  ME.
  WHY.

(A long silence.)

– Why did you cut your arm?
– Because it feels fucking great. Because it feels fucking amazing.
– Can I look?
– You can look. But don't touch.
– (Looks) And you don't think you're ill?
– No.
– I do. It's not your fault. But you have to take responsibility for your own actions. Please don't do it again.

I dread the loss of her I've never touched love keeps me a slave in a cage of tears
I gnaw my tongue with which to her I can never speak
I miss a woman who was never born
I kiss a woman across the years that say we shall never meet

  Everything passes
  Everything perishes
  Everything palls

  my thought walks away with a killing smile leaving discordant anxiety which roars in my soul

No hope No hope No hope No hope No hope No hope No hope

A song for my loved one, touching her absence
the flux of her heart, the splash of her smile

In ten years time she'll still be dead. When I'm living with it, dealing with it, when a few days pass when I don't even think of it, she'll still be dead. When I'm an old lady living ion the street forgetting my name she'll still be dead, she'll still be dead, she'll still be dead, it's just fucking over

and I must stand alone

My love, my love, why have you forsaken me?

She is the couching place where I never shall lie and there's no meaning to life in the light of my loss

Built to be lonely
to love the absent

Find me
Free me from this corrosive doubt futile despair

horror in repose

I can fill my space
fill my time
but nothing can fill this void in my heart

The vital need for which I would die

Breakdown

— No ifs or buts.
— I didn't say if or but, I said no.
— Can't must never have—to always won't should shan't.
The unnegotiables
Not today.

(Silence.)
– Please. Don't switch off my mind by attempting to straighten me out. Listen and understand, and when you feel contempt don't express it, at least not verbally, at least not to me.

(Silence.)

– I don't feel contempt.

– No?

– No. It's not your fault.

– It's not your fault, that's all I ever hear, it's not your fault, it's an illness, it's not your fault, I know it's not my fault. You've told me that so often I'm beginning to think it is my fault.

– It's not your fault.

– I KNOW.

– But you allow it.

(Silence.)

Don't you?

– There's not a drug on earth can make life meaningful.

– You allow this state of desperate absurdity.

(Silence.)

You allow it.

(Silence.)

– I won't be able to think. I won't be able to work.

– Nothing will interfere with your work like suicide.

(Silence.)

– I dreamt I went to the doctor's and she gave me eight minutes to live. I'd been sitting in the fucking waiting room half an hour.

(A long silence.)

Okay, let's do it, let's do the drugs, let's do the chemical lobotomy, let's shut down the higher functions of my brain and perhaps I'll be a bit more fucking capable of living.
Let's do it.

perhaps it will save me
perhaps it will kill me

a dismal whistle that is the cry of heartbreak around the hellish bowl at the ceiling of my mind

a blanket of roaches

cease this war

My legs are empty
Nothing to say
And there is the rhythm of madness

— I gassed the Jews, I killed the Kurds, I bombed the Arabs, I fucked small children while they begged for mercy, the killing fields are mine, everyone left the party because of me, I'll suck your fucking eyes out sent them to your mother in a box and when I die I'm going to be reincarnated as your child only fifty times worse and as mad as all fuck I'm going to make your life a living fucking hell I REFUSE I REFUSE I REFUSE LOOK AWAY FROM ME

— It's all right.

— LOOK AWAY FROM ME

— It's all right. I'm here.

— Look away from me

Why am I stricken?
I saw visions of God

and it shall come to pass Grid yourselves:
for ye shall be broken in pieces
it shall come to pass

Behold the light of despair
the glare of anguish and ye shall be driven to darkness

If there is blasting (there shall be blasting) the names of offenders shall be shouted from the rooftops

Fear God
   and his wicked convocation

a scall on my skin, a seethe in my heart a blanket of roaches on which we dance this infernal state of siege

All this shall come to pass
all the words of my noisome breath

Remember the light and believe the light

Christ is dead
   and the monks are in ecstasy

We are the abjects
who depose our leaders and burn incense unto Baal

Come now, let us reason together Sanity is found in the mountain of the Lord's house on the horizon of the soul that eternally recedes
The head is sick, the heart's caul torn Thread the ground on which wisdom walks Embrace beautiful lies – the chronic insanity of the sane

the wrenching begins

— At 4.48
when sanity visits
for one hour and twelve minutes I am in my right mind. When it has passed I shall be gone again, a fragmented puppet, a grotesque fool.
Now I am here I can see myself
but when I am charmed by vile delusions of happiness,
the foul magic of this engine of sorcery,
I cannot touch my essential self.

Why do you believe me then and now?

Remember the light and believe the light.
Nothing matters more.
Stop judging by appearances and make a right judgement.

– It's all right. You will get better.
– Your disbelief cures nothing.

Look away from me.

Sanity is found at the centre of convulsion, where madness is scorched form the bisected soul.

I know myself.

I see myself.

My life is caught in a web of reason spun by a doctor to argument the sane.

At 4.48

I shall sleep
I came to you hoping to be healed.

You are my doctor, my saviour, my omnipotent judge, my priest, my god, the surgeon of my soul.

And I am your proselyte to sanity.
